EXPLORE THEATRE with Crane River Theater Company: Theatre is essentially an opportunity to explore. People of all ages, all interests, and all backgrounds can relate to the universal appeal of theatre. It is for this reason that we bring to you a series of classes for various ages that explore the art of music, theatre and performance. The intention is to have fun through imagination and play. The program will allow participants to challenge themselves while working with others, and turn the ordinary into the extraordinary. All classes are offered through the Crane River Theatre Company and will be taught by theatre professionals. The final day for all classes will include a performance for families and friends. All classes are generously supported by Platte Valley State Bank and Trust Company. Imagination at Play: Kids will use a variety of methods to create their own version of a popular fairy tale through songs, dance and imagination. Let's Make a Musical: Discover the art of creating and performing your own musical. Students will create songs from popular melodies to tell a theatrical story of their very own. Glee! Take the stage by storm with your favorite musical numbers from the popular show Glee. This two week class will focus on the art of musical theatre. Students will perform multiple numbers complete with characters and choreography. Turn the Radio Up: Ever want to be on the radio? Well now is your chance. Create an old time radio show complete with characters and sound effects! Students will get the opportunity to develop the script from beginning to end. Friends and family are encouraged to tune in the final day. Specific class content questions should be directed toward Crane River Theatre at 627-5796. Min.: 5 Max.: 30
